The commander of IB No. 32... told me to not use this three acres of land because it is a gas pipeline restricted area... I felt it was unfair, but I have to be quiet.

- Nai Pai, 60, Kwanhla village, Mudon Township.

One young man from the village asked the captain, 'if you do this, where will we go to live?'... [H]e grabbed the young man and hit him in the head with the butt of his rifle. Once the young man had fallen down, the captain hit the young man's leg and it broke.

- Nai Chit Noy, Amae village, Yebyu Township.

Villagers were sentries for the pipeline... If the sentry fell asleep, they had to be punished... Some had to give money and some were kicked and punched in their faces. In 2006, two sentry men were killed.

- Kyin Kyi, 57, Nyatkyizin village, Yebyu Township

The villagers worry too much about the gas exploding again because they have had very bad experiences... Because wherever there is an explosion, the abuses occur.

- Nai Nyan Ong, 60, Kwanhla village, Mudon Township.
